Ivan Sagál – elected as member of the disciplinary committee of the Czech Bar Association

Prague (16 October 2009) - The 5th Assembly of the Czech Bar Association (ČAK) took place on October 16, 2009 at the Hotel Clarion in Prague where the bodies of the Association were elected. In total, 1424 attorneys-at-law took part in the vote. In the voting, Mgr. Ivan Sagál, a partner at Weinhold Legal was elected as a member of the disciplinary committee of the Czech Bar Association. The disciplinary committee is made up of 3-person committees that are responsible for reviewing and negotiating disciplinary cases and in the event of disciplinary misconduct may impose fines and/or disciplinary measures.

About Weinhold Legal

Ever since the establishment of the Prague office in 1996 and the subsequent founding of the Bratislava branch office in 1998, the legal practice of Weinhold Legal has maintained a strong presence on the Czech/Slovak markets. The law firm currently boasts a team of fifty highly-qualified experts.

In a competition organised by the publisher epravo.cz, under the auspices of the Czech Bar Association, Weinhold Legal was awarded the accolade "Law Firm of the Year 2008" in the category of Competition Law.
